UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA TERRE HAUTE DIVISION

LEONARD VARCADIPANE,	)
Plaintiff,	) )
v.	) No. 2:20-cv-00197-JPH-DLF
C/O SMITH,	)
Defendant.	)

Entry Directing Development of Exhaustion Defense and Issuing Partial Stay

The defendant's motion for leave to file a belated answer, dkt [11], accompanied by both a waiver of service form and answer, is granted. The answer has been considered.

The defendant has asserted the affirmative defense that the plaintiff failed to exhaust his administrative remedies prior to filing this lawsuit as required by the Prison Litigation Reform Act. This defense must be resolved before reaching the merits of this case. See Pavey v. Conley, 544 F.3d 739, 742 (7th Cir. 2008); Perez v. Wis. Dep't of Corr., 182 F.3d 532, 536 (7th Cir. 1999).

The defendant's exhaustion defense will be resolved pursuant to the following schedule.

The defendant shall have through November 25, 2020, in which to either:

- file a dispositive motion in support of the exhaustion defense;
- file a notice with the Court specifically identifying the fact issue(s) that preclude resolution of this affirmative defense via a dispositive motion and requesting a Pavey hearing; or
- file a notice with the Court withdrawing the exhaustion defense.

The failure to pursue any of these options by the above deadline constitutes an abandonment of the exhaustion defense.

If a dispositive motion is filed, the plaintiff shall have twenty-eight (28) days in which to respond. The defendant shall then have fourteen (14) days in which to reply. Furthermore, if the defendant files a dispositive motion, he must remember that it is his burden to prove both that the administrative remedy process was available to the plaintiff and that he or she failed to utilize it.

See Thomas v. Reese, 787 F.3d 845, 848 (7th Cir. 2015); Kaba v. Stepp, 458 F.3d 678, 686 (7th Cir. 2006). Thus, if the plaintiff responds with evidence that the administrative remedy process was unavailable, the defendant may and should consider whether selecting one of the other two options outlined above is the appropriate course—that is, conceding that a Pavey hearing is necessary or withdrawing the affirmative defense. Alternatively, the defendant's reply must directly confront the plaintiff's evidence regarding availability and explain why he remains entitled to summary judgment despite that evidence. Failure to present responsive evidence in reply will result in a forfeiture of any right to present that evidence if there is a future Pavey hearing.

Except for activities associated with the development and resolution of the defendant's affirmative defense that the plaintiff failed to exhaust his administrative remedies prior to filing this action, or any other matter directed by the Court, any other activities or deadlines in the action are stayed. Discovery on the issue of exhaustion is allowed.
